

School BOOKS

For Marion, Ralls and Monroe Counties.

L. M. WOOD,

Monroe City, Mo.

THE DEMOCRAT.

W. J. ROUSE, Editor.

TERMS $1.00 PER YEAR

Entered at the Postoffice at Monroe City, Missouri, as second-class matter.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1912.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

For President
Woodrow Wilson

For Vice-President
Thomas R. Marshall

For Congress—Second District
W. W. Rucker

For State Senator
Robert S. McClintic

For Representative
James P. Boyd

For Assessor
John T. Glasscock

For Sheriff
G. K. Lewis

For Treasurer
W. M. Meteer

For Prosecuting Attorney
A. T. Stewart

For Judge—Eastern District
B. F. Vaughn

For County Surveyor
M. W. Caldwell

Public Administrator
P. G. Msrr

Coroner
John A. Wilson

For Constable—Monroe Township
H. A. Graves

William Bull is at Memphis.

Buy that wedding ring from R. F. Bebb.

Bert Bull went to Palmyra yesterday.

For a wedding gift see R. F. Bebb, the Jeweler.

Ernest Smith returned Tuesday from a visit at Hunnewell.

T. M. Boulware and family are spending a few days at St. Paul.

Harris sells the kind of barrels you need for your sorghum. 9-12

John Lowe and wife, of Hannibal have been visiting Denny Kelly and family.

Arthur Barnes and wife of Ladonia, have been with their Monroe friends.

Mrs. C. C. Lewis and daughter, Miss Ethie, were Quincy visitors Tuesday.

Joe Kelehan of Granite City, Ill., has been visiting D. B. Kendrick and family.

Mrs. M. Carson of Quincy, has been visiting her sister and many friends here.

Ed Beadle and wife of Hannibal have been visiting the family of W. B. VanMarter.

You are missing a rare treat if you are not attending the Monroe City Chautauqua.

Quite a hail and rain struck south west of this city Sunday night. Considerable damage was done to growing corn in the territory covered by the storm.

Gem Theatre has been closed for repairs, will open Friday Aug. 30th with the big 4 reel feature: Winning Of the Latonia Derby. The Gem is now owned by R. A. Kirby and Ray Yowell, Kirby who has made a successful manager since it opened three years ago, will continue to manage the affair, while Ray will act as secretary and treasurer. These men have installed a Radium Gold picture screen at considerable cost. They have also ordered a Big Powers No. 6A. with Motor drive, this machine cost $300. for New York City. The new machine has only been on the market six weeks, and is the best one on the market, it will probably be installed Sept. 1st. Attend the Gem Friday Night and see Queen B.

For a wedding gift see R. F. Bebb, the Jeweler.

Schools Open.

The Monroe City Public Schools open Monday and the Holy Rosary School opens Tuesday. Every one of school age in this city should attend one or the other of these excellent schools. Keep the children in school every day of the term, if at all possible.

Full line of Silverware, Cut glass, Hand Painted China, Clocks. For the above wedding gifts see R. F. Bebb, the Jeweler.

Lost—Tuesday, Aug. 27, at the John Scobee sale a nice leather cane with carved handle. Finder will please return to W. T. Youell or leave at this office and receive a reward of $2.50.

Mrs. J. A. Clawson was the guest of her mother, Mrs. H. E. Paschal of Stoutsville several days the latter part of last week.

NOTICE

Look out for foreign and irresponsible fruit tree agents. I am here to take care of your orders, and represent the cleanest, most reliable and best of northern nurseries.

A. B. Warner, Salesman

For Rent—A good 5-room house with summer kitchen and woodshed Apply to Edmund Jaeger.

Buy that wedding ring from R. F. Bebb.

Sorghum barrels will be in big demand. Buy now from J. S. Harris. 9-12

Ben Davis, colored died Sunday in this city of typhoid fever. He came here recently from Hannibal.

Full line of Silverware, Cut glass, Hand Painted China, Clocks. For the above wedding gifts see R. F. Bebb, the Jeweler.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and citizens for the beautiful monument they have had erected at the grave of our loved one in honor and memory of him. Assuring each and all that their kindness shall ever be held in grateful remembrance.

Mrs. J. W. Stephens and Family

Mrs. Belle Fitzpatrick and daughter, Miss Stella went to Kansas City Monday to make their home. It was with regret that their many friends here, see them go away.

What's the Use of Loving if We Can't Have What we Love.

This is one of the greatest love songs ever written. It is all the rage in New York and will become popular all over the country.

CHORUS

What's the use of loving if you can't have what you love?
What's the use of vowing by the stars that shine above?
What's the use of trying?
What's the use of sighing?
What's the use of loving if you can't have what you love.

Price 50c per copy. Our readers will receive a copy postpaid by sending 15c in stamps to the Globe Music Co., 1193 Broadway, New York.

For Sale.

Three nice resident properties in Monroe City at a bargain. Enquire at the Commercial Hotel, 9-5.

A. C. Meyer and daughter, Miss Carrie started Monday to drive through to Cuba, Mo., where Mr. Meyer has a farm.

Be sure to send in a name for Carpenter's new bread. The one sending in the name selected gets $1.

Carl Smith who holds a good position on the St. Louis Star has been with his Monroe friends.

Miss Minnie Ebey of Winchester, Ill., has been the guest of her niece, Mrs. W. J. Rouse.

F. P. Kestner who has been farming on Bay Island near Hannibal, has been with friends here part of the week.

Random Furrows by Rambo.

Worry burns up energy.

The sluggard always has an excuse.

The borrower is a slave to the lender.

A hook baited with flattery catches suckers only.

The robin doesn't open the morning with a grouch.

Some men think ill-tempered yelling is horsemanship.

Marriage is apt to make the young farmer's clothes last longer.

Some homes seem to mistake themselves for debating societies.

The cloak of righteousness is not closely enough woven to hide sin.

You can not tell whether some men are alive or not by feeling of the pulse.

Silence is golden; but the silver-tongued orator can not be made to believe it.

If there were not so many curious eyes there would be more people with transparent characters.

A nice field of green alfalfa is worth a whole lot in keeping down the blues during a dry season.

Love minifies the faults and magnifies the virtues of its object; and it ought to; it would not be love otherwise.

Blue sky makes a poor shelter for farm tools and machinery; but manufacturers are by no means averse to such arrangement.

Friendship is an etherial thing, delicate, sweet and beautiful; so fragile it shatters at the touch of the rough-hand that would put it to selfish service.—Weekly Star Farmer.

Robert Wright and Isadore Taylor rode over on their wheels from Mexico to spend a few days with J. C. Ensor and family. They had a delightful trip.

Lost—In the northwest part of town, a small tie box, Holly paper covered, containing several neckties. Finder please leave at post-office or with J. C. Ensor.

Lost—Ladies black silk jacket between Monroe City and John I. Thomas farm. Leave at Democrat.

Albert Carman and wife, of Stoutsville visited relatives and friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Phone.

Telephone your orders to Lewis Nash for good clean hard coal and the best grades of Southern Ill. Sootless, Lump, Egg and Nutt coal Both phones.

Mrs. T. P. Middleton and sons, Warren and Warden came in Thursday from Maysville to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary L. Rouse.

Mark Hoblett and wife, of Lincoln, Ill., have been visiting Mrs. Hoblett's mother, Mrs. A. Boulware.

Miss Eunice Boyd of Paris is to teach the Buckman school. She is a most excellent young lady and the term will be a most successful one.

F. F. McGee was home part of the week. He has a good position in a bakery at Belleplaine, Iowa. He is a first class baker and an excellent gentleman.

Mesdames J. W. Crim of Ely, and T. M. Young of Palmyra, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Maxwell.

COAL! COAL!

HAVE YOU ORDERED YOUR WINTER COAL?

If not, get my prices before you buy. I have the best grade of Chestnut Size Pennsylvania HARD Coal, also the best grades of Lump, Egg and Nut, Southern Illinois Sootless Coal, the kind that will not clinker, is free from slack and dirt and burns to a white ash. Give it a trial.

I Also Have the Old Reliable Springfield Lump Coal

Telephone Your Orders to

LEWIS NASH

BOTH PHONES